ABOUT THIS POLICY

This Cookie Policy explains how AI WORLD LLC d/b/a Aholler.ai uses cookies and similar technologies on aholler.ai and related web interfaces. It should be read with the Privacy Policy.

1. WHAT COOKIES ARE

Cookies are small text files stored on a browser or device. Similar technologies include local storage, pixels, tags and software development kits. They can recognize a browser, remember preferences, support security and help us understand use of the site.

2. CATEGORIES WE USE

Strictly necessary

Required for core operation, authentication, session management, fraud prevention, load balancing and security. These cannot generally be disabled through our consent tool.

Functional

Remember choices such as language, interface settings and other preferences.

Analytics and performance

Help measure visits, navigation, feature use, errors and performance so we can understand and improve the site and Services.

Advertising or targeting

If used, help measure campaigns or tailor marketing. These are used only as permitted by law and subject to available consent or opt-out controls.

3. PURPOSES

- keep sessions secure and prevent misuse;
- sign users in and maintain account state;
- remember preferences and consent choices;
- measure traffic, reliability and feature performance;
- diagnose errors and improve usability; and
- measure or personalize marketing where enabled and permitted.

4. FIRST- AND THIRD-PARTY TECHNOLOGIES

First-party cookies are set by Aholler. Third-party technologies may be set by providers supporting hosting, security, analytics, embedded content or marketing. Third parties may process identifiers and technical data under their own notices and our agreements with them.

5. DURATION

Session cookies expire when the browser session ends. Persistent cookies remain for a stated period or until deleted. Duration depends on purpose, provider and settings. We periodically review the technologies used and retention periods.

6. YOUR CHOICES

Where available, use the Aholler cookie banner or preferences center to accept, reject or revise non-essential categories. You can also block or delete cookies through browser settings. Blocking strictly necessary storage may prevent sign-in or other core functions.

Browser-based opt-out signals, including legally recognized universal opt-out mechanisms, are honored where required by applicable law and technically applicable. Choices may need to be repeated for each browser or device.

7. DO NOT TRACK

Because there is no single industry standard for browser Do Not Track signals, our response may vary. We respond to legally required opt-out preference signals as described above.

8. CANADIAN USERS

Where Canadian law requires consent for non-essential cookies or similar technologies, we seek consent through the available interface. You may withdraw consent by changing preferences or deleting cookies, subject to essential technologies.

9. CHANGES

We may update this Policy as technologies, providers or law change. The revised version will be posted with a new effective date, and additional notice or consent will be requested where required.

10. CONTACT

Questions about cookies or privacy may be sent to privacy@aholler.ai or mailed to AI WORLD LLC, Attn: Privacy, 1770 S Young Circle, Suite 1216, Hollywood, FL 33020, USA.
